COLLECTOR'S
GUIDE

David J. Ryder

Dear Friends and Collectors:

Our 2021 Collector's Guide features visually stunning products that capture the public's imagination, celebrate our Nation, leaders, and history, and showcase the creativity of our Medallist Artists and Designers.

We are especially proud to unveil our new 2021 American Eagle Silver and Gold Coin designs! The reverses feature bold new eagle designs—the first in more than 35 years of the popular program. For the obverses, Mint Product Design Specialists returned to the historical sculptural models used in the creation of the original coins. As the designs underwent modifications over the years for evolving coinability standards, the artwork on both coins had also changed slightly. By using these original models, the Mint was able to successfully create new coins with obverses best reflecting Augustus Saint-Gaudens' and Adolph A. Weinman's original, unique sculptural visions.

The 2021 American Liberty High Relief Gold Coin™ has a bold new look as well. In a departure from years past, this year's coin obverse design features a wild American Mustang horse, bucking off a Western-style saddle, evoking the throwing off of the yoke of British rule during the American Revolution.

You'll also find yourself transported back in time with our stunning centennial Morgan and Peace Silver Dollars. These are faithful reproductions of these two timeless designs, right down to the Carson City and New Orleans privy marks of the old Mints where some of these coins were originally minted. This year is the 100th anniversary of the Morgan Dollar being replaced by the Peace Dollar in 1921.

Be sure to check out our two commemorative coin programs—the Christa McAuliffe Silver Dollar and the National Law Enforcement Memorial and Museum Coin Program. You'll also find several products featuring the last coin released in the America the Beautiful Quarters® Program—the Tuskegee Airmen National Historic Site quarter—Alabama's entry in the long-running series celebrating our country's natural beauty, heritage, and history.

Despite the challenges that we still face because of the pandemic, the Mint continues to offer a wide variety of numismatic products as we continue to proudly serve our Nation.

Sincerely,

David J. Ryder

2021 AMERICAN EAGLE SILVER PROOF AND UNCIRCULATED COINS

NEW DESIGN

After 35 years, the classic American Eagle Silver Coin has been updated. For 2021, thanks to technological advancements, the obverse featuring Lady Liberty represents a closer reflection of Weinman's original vision and includes the addition of his traditional artist mark. The coin's new reverse features an eagle as it approaches a landing, carrying an oak branch, as if to add it to a nest. Additional enhancements include anti-counterfeiting features.

NEW DESIGNS COMING THIS SUMMER

American Eagle Gold and Silver Coins will feature a
NEW reverse design for the first time in 35 years.

The gold coin's new reverse design depicts a stunning portrayal of an eagle. The obverse features Augustus Saint-Gaudens' full-length figure of Liberty with flowing hair, holding a torch in her right hand and an olive branch in her left. For the 2021 coin, the United States Mint returned to its original historical assets in 2020 to render a closer reflection of Saint-Gaudens' original vision and detail.

2021 MORGAN DOLLAR

PRE-ORDERS BEGIN MAY 24

The United States Mint marks the 100th anniversary of the end of minting of the iconic "Morgan Dollar." The Morgan Dollar was designed by George T. Morgan and was minted from 1878 to 1904 and again in 1921. This reflected a changing of the guard in 1921. The Lady Liberty in profile obverse design was considered unusual because her face took on a modern look. The 13 stars represent the Thirteen Original Colonies. The reverse features an eagle in flight, carrying an olive branch and a bundle of arrows, to symbolize strength during times of both peace and war. In keeping with 1921 practice, none of the coins minted at the Philadelphia Mint have a mint mark.

Mintage limit 175,000 each.

2021 PEACE DOLLAR

PRE-ORDERS BEGIN MAY 24

The United States Mint also celebrates the 100th anniversary of the beginning of minting of the "Peace Dollar." In December 1921, the Peace Dollar was approved by Treasury Secretary Andrew Mellon, replacing the Morgan Dollar and commemorating peace between the U.S. and Germany. The Peace Dollar symbolizes the country's coming of age as an international power, recognizes the sacrifices made by its citizens during World War I, and celebrates peace and victory.

The Peace Dollar was designed by Anthony de Francisci with the Goddess of Liberty on the obverse and a bald eagle clutching an olive branch (a symbol of peace) on the reverse. They were minted from 1921 to 1935 in Philadelphia, Denver, and San Francisco.

Mintage limit 200,000.

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Dear Friends, Shoppers, and Collectors:

Welcome to our 2021 Holiday Gift Guide! Here, you will find an array of high-quality—"Mint-condition"—coin and medal products to help celebrate the season. As we close out the second difficult year of a worldwide pandemic—and despite the ongoing challenges the Mint and our Nation still face—I can say that 2021 has been a successful year for the Mint. Thanks to our dedicated employees and the continued support of collectors like you, we have achieved some remarkable milestones.

David J. Ryder

Interest in our numismatic (collector) and bullion (investor) products remains strong. Much of this has been the result of unveiling our newly re-designed American Eagle Silver and Gold Coins, the first design change since our iconic, signature program began in 1986. Our stunning 2021 centennial anniversary Morgan and Peace Dollars have generated a tremendous amount of interest in the Mint and our products. In response, I am happy to announce that the Mint will continue to offer Morgan and Peace Dollar products in 2022 and beyond.

The America the Beautiful Quarters® Program came to an end this year. Planning is already well underway, however, for the exciting new American Women Quarters™ (AWQ) Program beginning in 2022. This new program has already captured the imagination of collectors and the general public, generating enormous interest and coverage in the national media. These new quarters will feature reverse designs honoring five women each year from diverse backgrounds and a wide spectrum of achievements and fields. The AWQ Program will run from 2022-2025, so be sure to check our website for product information as it becomes available. The 2022 honorees are Maya Angelou, Dr. Sally Ride, Wilma Mankiller, Nina Otero-Warren, and Anna May Wong.

There are many unique products featured in this year's guide to help get your holiday collecting and shopping off to a cheerful start. The 2021 United States Mint and Mighty Minters™ Ornaments for kids make the perfect stocking stuffers or additions to any tree or wreath, and 2019 and 2020 releases are still available while supplies last. Presidential Silver Medals are the perfect way to add some American history to your celebrations, while the familiar principles and ideals enshrined in the First Amendment are the powerful themes of our latest American Eagle Platinum Proof Coins. To celebrate our Nation's entrepreneurial, creative, and trail-blazing spirit, American Innovation® $1 Coins shine the spotlight on engineering marvels like the Erie Canal and Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel.

Our 2021 Christa McAuliffe and National Law Enforcement Memorial and Museum Commemorative Coins are available for ordering only through December 29. These commemorative coins honor McAuliffe and millions of other dedicated teachers and educators and their intersection with our decades-long fascination with space exploration. They also show appreciation for the thousands of dedicated public safety officers serving our communities. Sales of all commemorative coin products help raise funds in the form of surcharges authorized to be paid to the FIRST® (For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology) robotics program and the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

On behalf of everyone at the Mint, I wish you a peaceful and healthy holiday season filled with joy and wonder.

Sincerely,
